School levies for 2014

School levies this year will be $110 for the first student and then $90 per student.

Sale of student computers

We are selling for $100 each 7 student computers. The computers are ACER Aspire 1410. The only software they will have loaded is the operating system 'Microsoft Enterprise 7'. There is no warranty. The computers were manufactured in December 2009.

Parents' Morning Tea

Thursday, April 3

All parents are invited to attend the school in the lounge room for a morning tea and get together from 10.30 am.

Primary School Futsal Competition

We will possibly start on Monday 12th May depending on the number of teams wishing to participate.

We ask could you please reply as to whether you are interested or not.

Students must be in grade 5 or 6 to participate and we would like to know if you even have just one, two or a few students that would like to play as we may be able to make a team up from different schools.

If you are interested in having your child play in this competition please let me know by the end of next week.

Bigger Better Beverford

AT RECENT MEETINGS OF BBB, THE COMMITTEE AND MEMBERS HAVE DISCUSSED THE POSSIBILITY OF UTILISING THE SCHOOL OR OTHER FACILITIES TO RUN SOME WORKSHOPS OR SIMILAR EVENTS. This is a questionnaire to find out if residents and others would participate in or run some suggested activities or make suggestions about what they would attend. Most would be at no charge to members (only $1.00 for membership) unless accreditation or outside tutors/presentors is/are required.
