PJ Day was a Great Day

The final day of Term 2 was a wonderful fun day to celebrate the first half of the year. Everyone looked great in their warm Winter pj's!

The Junior School Council along with coordinator Miss Salau organised some fun activities including a scavenger hunt, board games made in STEM and of course a yummy sausage sizzle.

Principal's Report

Settling into Term 3

Welcome back to everyone. It's hard to believe we are already into Week 2. I hope you all had a restful break and are ready to tackle the second half of the 2023 school year. Term 3 is a time where a lot of learning and student growth takes place. We also have some exciting events during the term including Footy Colours Day, Prep Come & Try Sessions, Interschool Athletics Day and a Father's Day Breakfast.

Last week we welcomed two new staff members to the school - Megan Grant and Gretchen Skinner. Both teachers have worked at the school as casual relief teachers. Megan is our Wellbeing Coordinator working on Mondays and Thursdays while Mrs. Blackmore is on leave. Whilst Gretchen is our Literacy Tutor this term while Miss Pretty is teaching in the Senior classroom.

The Smile Squad Dental Van is due to visit next Tuesday 25th of July (Week 3). Please return your forms by the end of this week to access the free dental service.

In a few weeks the school will begin preparing and practicing for the Interschool Athletics at Ken Harrison in Swan Hill on Tuesday August 29. The events include sprint, long distance, shot put, long jump, hurdles, triple jump, discus, and high jump. The junior students do a tennis ball throw instead of shot put and quoit throwing instead of discus.

Our Prep Come & Try sessions are fast approaching. A flyer is attached. Please encourage anyone who may have a Prep in 2024 to register. The sessions run from 9-11am on Monday August 11 & 18. More details are available by contacting the school.

We have been talking to Mr. Cox and Mrs. Summerhayes who are enjoying their caravan trip but missing us all dearly. Mr. Cox will return at the end of next week and is excited to get back.
