Cricket Success!

Last Friday at the Swan Hill Showgrounds, Ben and Darcy represented our school in the Swan Hill District Small Schools Cricket Team.

The two boys played extremely well along with their team mates from Woorinen, Nyah and Lake Boga and won the Division 2 competition.

The Grand Final against Saint Joseph's from Kerang was hotly contested but thanks to some late wickets the Small Schools team won.

Principal's Report

Happy Easter BDPS!

We would like to wish everyone a very happy Easter. We hope our families have a safe and restful break ready to return for a busy Term 2 at the school. Tomorrow, Thursday April 1 will be Allyrah and Brydee's last day at BDPS as they move back to Bendigo during the holidays. We will miss the girls a lot and wish them along with Skye and Nathan all the best in the future.

A huge thanks to everyone for their donations for the Easter Raffle pictured below. The raffle will be drawn after the Easter Hat Parade, which begins at 9.00am. Please ensure all tickets and money have been returned before school on Thursday April 1.

Our final day of term will finish at 1.20pm. A reminder that students may wear free dress on this day and can pack footy boots and a football jumper for the clinic beginning at 10am.

On Tuesday March 30 we concluded our Inquiry unit with a Koorie Culture session with Cain, Joanne and Jacinta Chaplin. Students made jewellery, learnt a traditional platypus dance, threw boomerangs and met a baby joey kangaroo. It was a wonderful session and we thank Cain, Joanne and Jacinta for giving up their time to take the session.

The school is involved in the ANZAC Day Appeal with items for sale at the office. Prices are pictured below. Please send cash only to school with your child.
